

Bann cell phone use except when the aircraft is on the ground. That is plenty of time for people who have no consideration for people around them to be obnoxious. Flying is already enough of a hassle without having to put up with listening to self important people discuss their importance in loud voices.